V. Luke 12:1-59

VI. Luke 13:1-35

What do you learn about God, Jesus, and/or the Holy Spirit from this week's reading?

What topics or themes do you see?

Memory Verse: If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask Him?" Luke 11:13

Guide Your Heart

1. According to Luke 11:2, whose fame and glory should be the aim of all our prayers?

And how would the right focus shape a believer's prayer life? See Psalms 115:1

2. In the parables of the persistent friend and the good father, what are the key lessons to be learned?

6. Why does Jesus tell His disciples, “there is nothing concealed that will not be disclosed”? Luke 12:2

How does this truth motivate you towards obedience?

What area of your life is brought to mind when you consider this truth?

7. List some ways worry can distort the believer’s view of God. Luke 12:22-34

How does Philippians 4:6-7 instruct the believer about being anxious?

What do you worry most about?

8. What does Jesus mean when He says, “For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also”? Luke 12:34

1 Timothy 6:10 gives a warning about money. What is it and why is it given?

9. How do you think one is “rich towards God”? Luke 12:21

10. What does the parable of the barren fig tree teach us about God and repentance? See Matthew 3:7-10, 2 Peter 3:3-9

What is the Lord doing to grow spiritual fruit in your life?

Glean

Write the spiritual lessons you see from this week's study.

Go and Obey

Where is God calling you to obedience? Spend a moment to pray and ask the Lord to show you where there needs to be a change in your thinking, speech or conduct.

This week's prayer request:

What I am grateful for:

Colossians 2:7 Let your roots grow down into him, and let your lives be built on Him. Then your faith will grow strong in the truth you were taught, and you will overflow with thankfulness.
